Matt Werts is currently the co-owner of Elite Baseball. As a pitcher, he played collegiately for Belmont University in Tennessee and Millersville University. He also pitched for the Silver-Spring Takoma Thunderbolts, where he was a League All Star, and the Petersburg Generals, of the highly regarded Coastal Plain Collegiate League. Matt has served as an assistant coach and assistant recruiting coordinator for Silver-Spring Takoma of the Clark Griffith Collegiate League. He also has been a head coach of the Northwest Little League in Washington, D.C.

Matt Knox is currently the Co-Founder of Elite Baseball. Matt attended Millersville University from 1998-2001 where he holds single seasons records for most hits(80), RBI's(72), and HR's(14). Matt was drafted by the Cleveland Indians in the 13th round of the 2001 amateur draft. In 2003 he was a Sally League All-Star while playing for the Class-A Lake County Captains. He once hit two Grand Slams in one game for the Captains. In 2004 he was converted to the mound as a relief pitcher. He won a Championship with the Mahoning Valley Scrappers of the New York Penn League while being their closer. Matt also played for the 2006 Championship team/Lancaster Barnstormers. Where he helped anchor and solidify the bullpen.

Brian McKenna is currently an instructor and coach for Elite Baseball. Brian is currently the assistant coach for the collegiate summer league Silver Spring-Takoma Thunderbolts and the Quince Orchard High School. A 2000 graduate of Watkins-Mill High School in Gaithersburg, Maryland, Brian was named 1st Team All-Mets as a high school senior. Brian committed to Towson University, where he was named to the Verizon Academic All-American team and was first team All-CAA. After Brian graduated from Towson University in 2004, he went on to play for the Evansville Otters of the Frontier League until 2006, where he had 15 home runs, along with 30 doubles 92 RBI's and 205 hits.

Coach Chris Blum is the head coach for the Kutztown University Golden Bears. Coach Blum has a 225-96 record over the past 5 years, including a 87-35 mark in the PSAC East. He has led KU to the 2005, 2006 and 2008 PSAC crowns, the 2007 North Atlantic Regional title, and six-straight appearances in the NCAA regional tournament. The 225 wins are the most in any six-year span in program history. He was the fastest Pennsylvania baseball to reach 200 wins. In addition, seven of his players have gone on to play professional baseball.

KU Baseball Players will be used as additional staff.

ELITE BASEBALL

Elite Baseball is committed to bringing quality professional instruction and advisement to baseball players of all ages. We boast the highest level of instruction for every aspect of the game. From basic skills such as hitting and pitching, to physical conditioning, vision training, and college and professional advisement.

Our mission at Elite Baseball is to provide committed athletes with a motivating and positive atmosphere to increase athletic confidence and capacity. Through participation in Elite Baseball's programs and camps, each athlete will develop the physical skills and mental edge they desire for success in sports and life.

Elite Baseball's summer camp is designed to be a fun and challenging experience, with emphasis on team dynamics and individual skill development.

We will focus on throwing and catching techniques and drills, specialty positions (pitching, catching, outfield and infield), base running, hitting for power and average, speed and agility and playing scrimmage games to help pull all of these skills together.

Campers will continue to work on their hitting skills with participation in daily batting practice, tee work, soft toss, live pitching (with pitching coach), and pitching machines (age - appropriate) throughout the clinic.

Other activities will include weekly awards for team player of the week, the hustle award, most home runs (home run derby) and other special awards. Nightly activities will include ping-pong, basketball and movie night.

Safety is Elite Baseball's first priority. Our Camp Directors and Staff are CPR and First Aide trained and certified. Elite Baseball offers the most experienced and credentialed staff.
